World Book Day

What an enchanting day yesterday! Thank you to our families for helping us mark this special day in such a memorable way. The children's character and setting costumes were original, with many clever homemade creations. In assembly yesterday, all the children had to walk the catwalk to show off their outfits and our teachers chose winners for each class. All the following winners were presented with a certificate and a £10 book token.

Manar in Nursery came dressed all in grey, dressed as a mouse from Handa's Hen.

Luay in Reception made his own mask of a cat linked to their current English book The Growing Story.

In Year 1 we had many great Paddington Bears, however Melissa's very creative adaptation of everyday things at home was the winner!

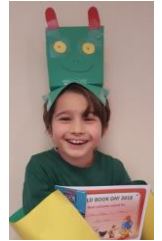

Hamza in Year 2 came as the wolf in Roald's Dahl's Revolting Rhymes. What a clever reworking of a tracksuit.

Deema's cavewoman costume inspired by Stig of the Dump by Clive King had been hand sewn using materials from a fabric shop.

Tudor D in Year 4 came as a Basic Brown dragon from How to Train your Dragon by Cressida Cowell.

Stimulated by the incredible expedition led by Ernest Shackleton in 1914, Rebekah from Year 5 made the hull of his ship called Endurance.

Jumana's attention to detail of Skellig by David Almond was impressive. She came as Mina with homemade books, a bag and an example of Mina's bird hobby.

Karim, created a superb interpretation of Skellig, a key character Year 6 have only just read about it.

Every child received a National £1 book token to spend on special £1 books or use it towards the cost of any other book. Here are some of the excellent £1 book titles below ... hurry to your nearest bookshop to pick the title of your choice.
