

Eid Al-Fitr

Many families at Ark Paddington Green Primary Academy will soon be celebrating Eid Al-Fitr. We are aware that this special occasion could be on Friday 15 or Saturday 16 June. As the school is closed for training on Friday 15 June, families who will be observing this religious event on this date, are not required to call the school to inform us of this. Please be aware that we will not be authorising any absences on Monday 18 June and all children are expected to attend school. We will celebrate this special time for many of our families with Eid parties on Monday 18 June. The parties will take place in every class from 2.15 to 2.50, and parents are welcome to join the parties from 2.30. Children are invited to bring their party clothes to change into, and to bring some food to share for the parties. We wish all families celebrating a very happy Eid Al-Fitr.

APG Culture of Community Commitment

Once again, attendance at home learning workshops and parents' evenings has been excellent.

We owe our community a huge debt of thanks for their attendance at these events that are very important to us. We relish this time to build relationships with each and every family in the knowledge that if our communication together is really strong, then we will understand each better and therefore be able to offer the best possible support to our children, both at home and at school. A special thank you to the parents who have to put significant plans in place, in order to be able to attend. The data above and especially below indicates the exceptional commitment from the Ark Paddington Green community. Every minute you spend with your children in these workshops and meetings really makes a difference, and gives each child a positive message about how closely the school and home is working together to prepare all your wonderful children for a successful future.
